Argentina (Spanish And English Edition)

Synopsis

This book is a compendium of representative photographs of every corner of the country. A regional tourist approach has been carefully followed for easy understanding. Each region, identified by a color, includes various neighboring provinces which share cultural and historic characteristics, or simply a river such as in the Litoral. Texts enrich the more interested reader with information on the scenery, geography, history and even the local gossip.

Customer Reviews

I bought this book as a wedding present for a good friend of mine because they went to Argentina for their honeymoon, when the book arrived i was really disappointed, it was a small book with old text, bad printed, not a decent wedding gift for sure even though the price suggests something else. I returned it because it was not worth even if it costs half price.

my husband grew-up in Argentina and loved this book. He was able to recognize many pictures in this book!
