A great birthday gift--I have bought a few of these for milestone birthdays. Each pamphlet is about 24 pages and the breakdown seems to follow this format: (one page devoted to each topic unless stated otherwise).-trivia-a popular recipe-interesting facts-sports news-movies-2 pages of the average price of everyday items-politics-music/tv-inventions that year-headline news-famous births/top baby names-popular fashion and games-10 pages of print advertisements from that year

Bought this as a birthday card for my husbands 50th birthday and he loved it. We really enjoyed reflecting on the major differences in prices from 1966 and now. I would definitely recommend. It is a lot of fun.

This has a lot of interesting information in it. I kind of impulse purchased it when I was buying things for my husband's 50th birthday party. I was hoping to play a sort of trivia game with the people that came, but it wasn't that sort of crowd (kind of duddy people!). It's going to end up stuffed in a drawer and sold at a garage sale at some point, I'm sure! Maybe I can pass it on to someone else turning 50 this year... At least it wasn't too expensive of an impulse :)

My husband loved this. Very interesting facts about the year the world was blessed with his presence. It's so funny how at the time things must have seemed so expensive. It is really wonderful to see all the fun facts about the year a person is born. This little book has so much info. It is not cheaply made and should hold up for years to come. We hope to be able to share this with our future grandkids.

Really liked this book, it was exactly what I was expecting! Full of bits and pieces from 1966! This is going to go perfect with my husband's 50th birthday party! The book is a paperback with thick outside covers to keep it safe!

I bought this for my Sister's birthday. She enjoyed reading about how things were in 1966 compared to now. My Mom really got into also. Now I have to buy one for her.

I bought this as a card for a friend, and must admit we read the entire card before we gave it away. Very cute and interesting, and the cost was no more than any other card and so much more interesting. I will buy again for my next milestone birthday

This card is exactly what my Mom wanted for my Brother's birthday! It's cute and makes a nice card bringing back memories of when he was younger! It's a nice birthday card! Thank you so much!
