It was poorly written and had nothing new in it. If you watch the show you would have known everything in this book. You would have more fun just watching the show's re-runs. Spend your money on other Big Bang Theory stuff.

I am a huge fan of TBBT. My wife and I have seen every episode more than once and own them all on Bluray. That being said, we are up on all things TBBT. I was hoping this book would enhance that and tell us some things that maybe we didnt know. I was wrong. The book is a very poorly written mishmash of random facts that are not layed out in any order whatsoever. Reading the book is very frustrating. It feels as if the Author is filling the pages with as many useless words as possible to fill space. Also, they must have been having a huge sale on exclamation points! because the book is littered with them. It reminds me of the episode of seinfeld called "The Sniffing Accountant" where Elaine filled her new boyfriend's book with exclamation points because he refused to use them at all. This book is good for random facts about the show that can be picked up anywhere and for someone who is just getting into the show. For seasoned fans of the show, it's worthless. ;-)

There was way too much focus on the Penny character and actress info- very little on the other actors, producers, writers. I was disappointed in this book.

Sheldon is the funniest man on a comedy show. This book tells you about the actors and the making of The Big Bang Theory. I'm not into geeks guys, but I'm into Rockers Guys. Geeks act really funny.. But Sheldon, Leonard, Howard and Raj are the totally funny geeks. DONT listen to the people who brought this book. Because they wish that they are smart, funny, and awesome in a National TV Show.. #1 Fan of Team Sheldon;)

This came up in my recommendations after completing another transaction, and as soon as I saw the special guest description of "Katee Sackhoff and River Glau" I knew it would be a waste of my time. I've never even seen the Sarah-whatever-Chronicles, but I've seen every episode of BBT and have guy friends WAITING to use the line "It's hot in here, it must be summer"... from when Raj tries to hit on SUMMER GLAU. If they can't get the details right in the description, I can't imagine how much they've screwed up in the actual text. Reviewer #1 was right, just watch the re-runs. Better use of your time and it's free on Hulu instead of paying $11+ for a book of nonsense.

Bits and pieces strung together in a haphazard alphabetical way. Doesn't tell you anything you didn't already know if you are a fan of the series. Waste of money.

I gave the book a 8.8/10. I would've rated it higher, but there's a picture on pages 24-25 that the caption says is the Barenaked Ladies, but it's not, I have no idea who the band is. Good book overall though. I agree with the 1 star reviewer that if you watch all the episodes this book might be a bit redundant, but I just like that it's in book form with a lot of information.

If you are a fan of the show ... you will LOVE this book.and, it's CHEAP always good.Tom.Rook@Technik-SA.US
