...but again, as with many language learning products, the phonetic spelling of the words is lacking.

As a Spanish teacher, I often have to "unteach" mispronunciation of words, and so I'm very wary of recommending products that either don't come with CD's or phonetic spelling alongside every word. That's the only con though. This book is really a good one - it goes beyond the basic colors and numbers, and actually focuses on some verb conjugation, translation, and yet still has pictures to color or explain a lot of vocabulary words. Everything is QUITE well-done. I'm pleased to suggest this to many of my own students, and I really like that it truly is level 2 in a real sense, not just more nouns. Great for summer break practice! Sra. Gose Author of Flip Flop Spanish: Ages 3-5: Level 1 & Spanish Fun Activity Calendar

This is a handy book for language tutoring. A good way to reinforce basic Spanish skills.

works well

Average material. You could probably find as much or more by Googling on the internet.
