Playing piano four-hand music is simply more fun than the law allows! Dover's low-priced edition brings you Mozart's delightful sonatas for one piano four-hands, as well as a prelude and fugue and an incredible sonata for two pianos. My copy has gotten a workout, and I highly recommend this book for any keyboard player

Every pianist must learn at least a few of Mozart's works. This set is a gem. The binding is sturdy, print bold, cover coffee-proof, and contains some of my favorites. Enjoy.

The only drawback is that this vertically oriented book is a bit more difficult to read for 1 piano, 4 hands. There are more expensive European editions that are oriented horizontally.

It is an old CD and difficult to find elsewhere, but the music is beautiful.
