Customer Reviews

As the title indicates, they are short and easy pieces and may be too easy for intermediate beginner cellist and up. I bought this piece to play guitar and cello separately for recording purpose. I can play more complex cello pieces, but I'm not a good guitarist, so this will be perfect for me to have some fun with both instruments in the future.

This book includes 15 pieces for guitar and cello. This is written in standard notation, and includes TABs for the guitar. The intro includes some basics on reading music and terminology. I found the music to be straightforward and easy. Some of the notes include fingering for the cello. Overall, it's a good book.

Easy to read, great for beginner level. Also compatible with the "Easy Classical Guitar and Viola Duets" book. A great book for duets(or trios if you get the other compatible books) for starting out.
