El Refugio Secreto (Astor) (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

Desde su publicaciÃ³n, hace mÃ¡s de cuarenta aÃ±os, la historia de Corrie ten Boom, una relojera holandesa de la ciudad de Haarlem, ha servido de inspiraciÃ³n a millones de personas. HeroÃ±a de la resistencia a la ocupaciÃ³n nazi de su patria, ella, junto a toda su familia, arriesgaron la vida para ayudar a los judÃ±os perseguidos y a los jÃ¡venes buscados por los alemanes para deportarlos como fuerza de trabajo. DespuÃ©s de convertir su casa en un refugio clandestino donde podÃ¡a acudir todo el que tenÃ¡a necesidad, y de salvar a cientos de personas, aquella actividad les llevÃ³ a probar ellos mismos el sabor de los campos de la muerte. Solo pudo sobrevivir Corrie, y gracias a ello pudo contar por todo el mundo esta historia de cÃºmo la fe acaba triunfando sobre el mal, pues no hay pozo tan profundo donde no llegue la gracia y el amor de Dios. Corrie ten Boom (1892-1983) fue una escritora holandesa cÃ³lebre por dar refugio a los perseguidos por los nazis durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Tras sobrevivir a un campo de concentraciÃ³n, fundÃ³ varios centros de rehabilitaciÃ³n y viajÃ³ por todo el mundo contando su historia de fe y de esperanza. Fue nombrada "Justa entre las Naciones" por el gobierno de Israel.

Customer Reviews

This is the Spanish text edition of an absolutely extraordinary book. Never have I read a book in which the spiritual beauty of the author so resonated throughout the story. The purity of heart that manifests itself in this inspiring saga of a heroic, Dutch family in Nazi occupied Holland during World War II is stunningly beautiful. This is the true story of the Ten Boom family who, during the Nazi occupation of The Netherlands, upon seeing what was happening to their Jewish neighbors and friends, asked themselves this age old question "If not us,...who; if not now, when?" They answered it, ultimately, at great cost. The Ten Booms were devoutly Christian and lived a simple life. The patriarch of the family ran a watch shop that had been in his family for a century. Some of the family members, the author among them, worked there; selling and repairing clocks and watches. They also lived in the house in which the shop was located. When the Nazis occupied their country, the reality of what it meant slowly dawned upon them, as they saw the treatment given to their fellow Dutch citizens of the Jewish faith. Moved by their plight, the author at the age of fifty, together with other members of her family, including their father who was nearly eighty, became active in the Dutch underground. When it became clear to the Ten Booms that Jews were being targeted for deportation and death, they had a false wall constructed in the author's bedroom, thereby creating a secret room. There, they would hide the terrified Jews who were staying with them, in the event of a Nazi raid upon their home.
